What is the Disability Gateway?

The Disability Gateway helps all Australians with disability, their families and carers to find trusted information and connect to services in their local area.

It is a free, Australia-wide service that includes a website, phone line, and Facebook page.

The Disability Gateway can connect you to the support you need, such as financial, housing, health, employment, transport and everyday living supports and services.

Website

The Disability Gateway is an accessible, welcoming and safe place to look for information.

Go to disabilitygateway.gov.au

Phone line

When you call the Disability Gateway phone line, you will talk to a real person who will give you clear information and connect you to supports and services that are right for you.

You can call the Disability Gateway on 1800 643 787.

It is available Monday to Friday, 8am to 8pm AEDT/AEST.

Social media

The Disability Gateway is available on Facebook – providing trusted information and news and helping people with disability, their families and carers engage with the Gateway and wider community.
