Health professionals and the Disability Gateway

People with disability often receive treatment from a range of health professionals, who are key sources of trusted information. Finding and accessing the right supports and services can be a challenge, but the Disability Gateway can help.

An easy way to search and connect

The Disability Gateway is a free, Australia-wide service to help people with disability, their families and carers, find information and services. It comprises a website, phone line and a Facebook page to help people connect to trusted information and services.

Visit: disabilitygateway.com.au

The website is an accessible, welcoming and safe place, offering 10 key areas of life such as income and finance, health, housing, employment, transport, everyday living, and more.

Follow: facebook.com/disabilitygateway

Follow the Disability Gateway on Facebook to get regular disability information, updates, and news.

Call: 1800 643 787

When you contact the Disability Gateway phone line, you will talk to a real person who will give you clear information and connect you to supports and services that are right for you.

It can also transfer people directly to other support services if needed, like counselling or advocacy services.

How can you help promote the Disability Gateway?

Help spread the word about the Disability Gateway so people can get the support they need.
