

The Disability Gateway

Connecting you to culturally safe information and services

Australian Government

Disability Gateway

Connecting you to information and services

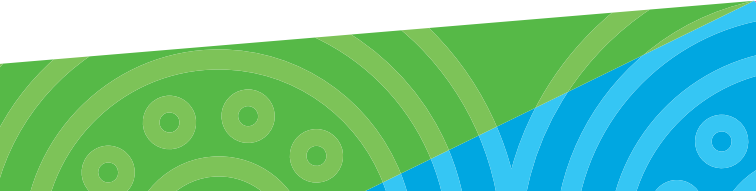

What is the Disability Gateway?

The Disability Gateway helps First Nations people with disability and their families to find culturally safe information and services in their local area.

It is a free, Australia-wide service that includes a website, phone line, and Facebook page.

The Disability Gateway can help you access physical and mental health support, community support, financial support, housing and other services.

Contact us

Phoneline

1800 643 787

Monday to Friday,
8am to 8pm AEDT/AEST

When you call, you will speak to a real person who will give you clear information and connect you to the right supports.

Website

disabilitygateway.gov.au

It's easy to access,
welcoming and a safe place
to look for information.

Social Media

Search on Facebook

@Disability Gateway

An easy way to find services and supports in your local area

Health and wellbeing

Employment

Rights and legal

Aids and equipment

Transport

Income and Finance

Housing

Education

Everyday living

Leisure

Let us help you today

Call
1800 643 787

Monday to Friday,
8am to 8pm AEDT/AEST

Visit
disabilitygateway.gov.au

First Nations Consultants available.

If you need support in a language other than English, the Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS) can help.

You can call:

- the Disability Gateway on 1800 643 787 and ask for an interpreter.
- TIS National on 131 450 and ask them to connect you to the Disability Gateway.

If it is hard for you to hear or speak, you can call the National Relay Service on 133 677 and ask to be connected to the Disability Gateway.

Artwork by Marcus Lee